

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

DANIEL JENKINS (1)

NO. 3:18-CR-406-K

PLEA AGREEMENT

Daniel Jenkins, the defendant; Heath Hyde, the defendant's attorney; and the United States of America (the government) agree as follows:

1. Rights of the defendant: The defendant understands that the defendant has the following rights:
 - a. to plead not guilty;
 - b. to have a trial by jury;
 - c. to have the defendant's guilt proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
 - d. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in the defendant's defense; and
 - e. against compelled self-incrimination.
2. Waiver of rights and plea of guilty: The defendant waives these rights and pleads guilty to the offenses alleged in Counts One, Five, and Fifteen, of the Superseding Indictment filed May 15, 2019 (hereinafter the Indictment), charging violations of 18 U.S.C. § 371 (Count One – Conspiracy), 18 U.S.C. § 249(a)(2) (Count Five – Hate Crime Acts), and 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A)(ii) and (c)(1)(C)(i) (Count Fifteen – Using, Carrying, and Brandishing a Firearm During and in Relation to a Crime of Violence). The defendant understands the nature and elements of the crimes to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and agrees that the factual resume the defendant has signed is true and will be submitted as evidence.

3. Sentence:

The maximum penalties the Court can impose on Count One, a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371, include:

- a. imprisonment for five years;
- b. a fine of $250,000.00;
- c. a term of supervised release of not more than three years, which may be mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If the defendant violates the conditions of supervised release, the defendant could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
- d. a mandatory special assessment of $100.00;
- e. restitution to victims or to the community, which may be mandatory under the law, and which the defendant agrees may include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, not limited to that arising from the offense of conviction alone;
- f. costs of incarceration and supervision; and
- g. forfeiture of property.

The maximum penalties the Court can impose for Count Five, the violation of 18 U.S.C. § 249, include:

- a. imprisonment for any term of years, including life;
- b. a fine of $250,000.00;
- c. a term of supervised release of not more than five years, which may be mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If the defendant violates the conditions of supervised release, the defendant could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
- d. a mandatory special assessment of $100.00;
- e. restitution to the victims or to the community, which may be mandatory under the law, and which the defendant agrees may include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, not limited to that arising from the offenses of conviction alone;
- f. costs of incarceration and supervision; and
- g. forfeiture of property.

The minimum and maximum penalties the Court can impose for Count Fifteen, the violation of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A)(ii), include:

- a. imprisonment for a term of not less than seven years and not more than life, which will run consecutive to any sentence imposed on any other count;
- b. a fine of $250,000.00;
- c. a term of supervised release of not more than five years, which may be mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If the defendant violates the conditions of supervised release, the defendant could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
- d. a mandatory special assessment of $100.00;

- e. restitution to the victims or to the community, which is mandatory under the law, and which the defendant agrees may include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, not limited to that arising from the offense of conviction alone;
- f. costs of incarceration and supervision; and
- g. forfeiture of property.

4. Immigration consequences: The defendant recognizes that pleading guilty may have consequences with respect to the defendant's immigration status if the defendant is not a citizen of the United States. Under federal law, a broad range of crimes are removable offenses. The defendant understands this may include each of the offenses to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and for purposes of this plea agreement, the defendant assumes each offense is a removable offense. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding, however, and the defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the district court, can predict to a certainty the effect of the defendant's conviction on the defendant's immigration status. The defendant nevertheless affirms that the defendant wants to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that the defendant's plea of guilty may entail, even if the consequence is the defendant's automatic removal from the United States.

5. Sentencing agreement: Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(C), the parties agree that the appropriate sentence in this case is no more than 312 months. If the Court accepts this plea agreement, this sentencing provision is binding on the Court. Other than the agreed sentencing range, there are no other sentencing limitations, and the Court remains free to determine the appropriate sentence under the United States Sentencing Guidelines and 18 U.S.C. § 3553.

6. Rejection of agreement: Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(5), if the Court rejects this plea agreement, the defendant will be allowed to withdraw the defendant's guilty plea. If the defendant declines to withdraw the defendant's guilty plea, the disposition of the case may be less favorable than that contemplated by the plea agreement.

7. Mandatory special assessment: The defendant agrees to pay to the U.S. District Clerk the amount of $300.00 in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessments in this case.

8. Defendant's agreement: The defendant shall give complete and truthful information and/or testimony concerning the defendant's participation in the offenses of conviction and all underlying and related conduct. Upon demand, the defendant shall submit a personal financial statement under oath and submit to interviews by the government and the U.S. Probation Office regarding the defendant's capacity to satisfy any fines or restitution. The defendant expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to immediately obtain a credit report on the defendant in order to evaluate the defendant's ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court. The defendant fully understands that any financial obligation imposed by the Court, including a restitution order and/or the implementation of a fine, is due and payable immediately. In the event the Court imposes a schedule for payment of restitution, the defendant agrees that such a schedule represents a minimum payment obligation and does not preclude the U.S. Attorney's Office from pursuing any other means by which to satisfy the defendant's full and immediately enforceable financial obligation. The defendant understands that the defendant has a continuing obligation to pay in full as soon as possible any financial obligation imposed by the Court.

9. Government's agreement: The government will not bring any additional charges against the defendant based upon the conduct underlying and related to the defendant's plea of guilty. The government will file a Supplement in this case, as is routinely done in every case, even though there may or may not be any additional terms. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas and the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities, nor does it prohibit any civil or administrative proceeding against the defendant or any property.

10. Violation of agreement: The defendant understands that if the defendant violates any provision of this agreement, or if the defendant's guilty plea is vacated or withdrawn, the government will be free from any obligations of the agreement and free to prosecute the defendant for all offenses of which it has knowledge. In such event, the defendant waives any objections based upon delay in prosecution. If the plea is vacated or withdrawn for any reason other than a finding that it was involuntary, the defendant also waives objection to the use against the defendant of any information or statements the defendant has provided to the government, and any resulting leads.

11. Voluntary plea: This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats, or of promises apart from those set forth in this plea agreement. There have been no guarantees or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

12. Waiver of right to appeal or otherwise challenge sentence: The defendant waives the defendant's rights, conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742, to appeal the conviction, sentence, fine and order of restitution or forfeiture in an amount to be determined by the district court. The defendant further waives the defendant's right to contest the conviction, sentence, fine and order of restitution or forfeiture in any collateral proceeding, including proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 and 28 U.S.C. § 2255. The defendant further waives the defendant's right to seek any future reduction in the defendant's sentence (e.g., based on a change in sentencing guidelines or statutory law). The defendant, however, reserves the rights (a) to bring a direct appeal of (i) a sentence exceeding the statutory maximum punishment, or (ii) an arithmetic error at sentencing, (b) to challenge the voluntariness of the defendant's plea of guilty or this waiver, and (c) to bring a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

13. Additional Waiver of Defendant's Right to Appeal: Defendant's knowing and voluntary waiver of the right to appeal or collaterally attack the convictions and sentence includes waiving the right to raise on appeal or on collateral review any argument that (1) the statutes to which the defendant is pleading guilty are unconstitutional and (2) the admitted conduct does not fall within the scope of the statutes of conviction.

14. Representation of counsel: The defendant has thoroughly reviewed all legal and factual aspects of this case with the defendant's attorney and is fully satisfied with that attorney's legal representation. The defendant has received from the defendant's attorney explanations satisfactory to the defendant concerning each paragraph of this plea agreement, each of the defendant's rights affected by this agreement, and the alternatives available to the defendant other than entering into this agreement. Because the defendant concedes that the defendant is guilty, and after conferring with the defendant's attorney, the defendant has concluded that it is in the defendant's best interest to enter into this plea agreement and all its terms, rather than to proceed to trial in this case.

15. Entirety of agreement: This document is a complete statement of the parties' agreement and may not be modified unless the modification is in writing and signed by all parties. This agreement supersedes any and all other promises, representations, understandings, and agreements that are or were made between the parties at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. No promises or representations have been made by the United States except as set forth in writing in this plea agreement.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this 21 day of Feb, 2021.
